1. Useful Information.—The use of soaps containing alkali is permicious, especially after shaving. They fill up the pores of the skin, which they also dry and stiffen, so as to produce much pain and annoyance. The Amole, or Shaving Compound, invented and sold by WILLIAM BOGLE, No. 277 Washington-st. is a purely vegetable production, of a peculiarly soothing nature, and can be specially recommereded for the use of those suffering from tenderness of the cuticle while shawing, and young men who have just begun to use the razor. It is a foc to all those unsightly cruyitious which arise from irritation. May be had of A. B. & D Sanda No 100 Fulton-st.; Rushton, Clark & Co., No. 245 Pearl-st., and by Druggiste and Perfumers throughout the world.
